Rosie Huart &
Trish McKinney

May 16-18, 2008

Highlands Sanctuary

$350

Two artists will guide you on an exciting journey of the mind, body and spirit. Two unique styles will come together in harmony of the creative spirit.

Mornings, Trish will take students on hiking trips in the beautiful surrounding areas to paint watercolor plein air. There is a "Listening Trail" where participants can just simply "be" & reflect on the beauty of nature. Afternoons, Rosie will have students take their experiences of the morning, & through creative writing paint art journal pages, which will eventually result in a beautiful book. Evenings, we will gather together for reflection & sharing of our creative discoveries.

Participants will be fed through the artistry of food, so that each of the senses is experienced on this retreat. This promises to be an experience of art, body, & spirit!
